Researcher development

VU offers a comprehensive Researcher Development Program (the VURDP) for the VU researcher that offers opportunities across nine categories spanning the entire research career from graduate researcher through to accomplished senior researcher.

Additional online resources are available on the VU Researcher Development intranet.

The VURDP is offered in collaboration with Office for Researcher Training, Quality and Integrity, the Office for Research, the VU Library and Academic Support and Development.

Current researcher development opportunities

When researcher development sessions have been confirmed they are added to the online calendar.

Students will be notified through their VU email account, while staff will be notified via the Research-Info email list (subscribe to Research-Info).

If you have any questions, please contact researcher.development@vu.edu.au.

CAUL Engagement and Influence strategy

CAUL ENGAGEMENT AND INFLUENCE

Direction: National and global engagement in the development of quality, sustainability and innovation in information management and higher education.

Strategies:

1. Pro-actively build influence and visibility with policy makers.
2. Build relationships with peer organisations, federal and state government departments and research bodies.
3. Build and maintain relationships with other peer groups in the library and information science sector, nationally and internationally.

VU Library Engagement and Influence framework

- Inform: to provide information and assist
- Consult: to obtain feedback
- Involve: to work directly to ensure concerns and needs are understood and considered
- Collaborate: to partner to achieve agreed solutions
- Empower: to place final decisions in hands of stakeholders
