The Speakers

Janette Burke Monash University

Janette Burke is the Director, Resources Division at Monash University. Janette is responsible for all aspects of resource management and the Library's relationships with the University's centralised services, international community, affiliates and partner organisations.

Ms Burke has been at Monash University for 10 years and prior to her current appointment she held various positions and worked in several universities, including the University of Wollongong Library, the University of Central Queensland and the University of Ballarat Library.

Julia Leong RMIT University

Julia Leong, Staff Development Librarian, RMIT University

Julia has worked in libraries throughout eastern Australia and the Northern Territory. She has a career-long interest in professional development and enjoys her current role working with RMIT Library staff in Melbourne, Saigon South and Hanoi.

Emma Rose RMIT University

Emma Rose, Liaison Librarian for School of Global, Urban and Social Studies, RMIT University
Emma has worked at RMIT University for 19 years, and has been a liaison librarian for the past 11 years. Emma was fortunate to visit Vietnam in 2013 to deliver training and develop productive relationships with our Vietnamese colleagues.

Mary Coghlan University of Melbourne Library

Mary Coghlan, eLearning Project Coordinator at the University of Melbourne Library

Mary has made several trips to Timor-Leste with the aim of assessing library staffing, collections and library systems at the national university in Dili (Universidade Nacional Timor Lorosa'e)

Frances O'Neil Victoria University

Frances O'Neil is Associate Librarian, Scholarly Information Services at Victoria University, providing strategic direction to the Library's contribution to the University's learning, teaching and research activities. Victoria University has a long-standing relationship with the National University Timor Leste (UNTL), having hosted a number of study tours and a range of other staff and student exchanges. Most notably in 2011, VU Library hosted the UNTL librarian for a study tour which culminated in the production of, using the LibGuides platform, the first UNTL Library webpage: <http://guides.library.vu.edu.au/untl>

Lou Connell
Victoria University

Lou Connell is the College Librarian (Business) at Victoria University. Lou will discuss developing and implementing an online class for students attending Sunway College in Malaysia.

Kathryn Lindsay
University of Melbourne Library

Kathryn Lindsay is a Liaison Librarian (Science & Engineering) at the University of Melbourne. Kathryn will discuss her experience of volunteering and working in Canada in a number of library related roles whilst completing her research as an RMIT Masters student.

Karen Campbell
Australian Catholic University

Karen Campbell (Library Manager at ACU Melbourne Library), will talk about her experiences as a Librarian in Papua New Guinea and the United Arab Emirates.
